

Report to general assembly.      tution, and report on the same to the general assembly, with such remarks and recommendations as to them shall seem expedient.

Superintendent.      SEC. 7. The board of directors shall appoint a superintendent of the institution, and prescribe his duties. He shall be a skillful physician, educated to his profession, of good moral character, of prompt business habits, of kindly disposition, and a married man. He shall hold his office for six years from and after his appointment, unless sooner removed by the board, who may, for infidelity to his trust, gross immorality, incompetency to discharge the duties of his office, fully proved and declared, and the proof thereof recorded in the book of their proceedings, remove him and appoint another in his place.

Qualifications.      SEC. 8. The board of directors shall appoint an assistant physician, and with the advice and consent of the superintendent, prescribe his duties. He shall hold his office for four years from and after his appointment, unless sooner removed by the board for good cause, which shall be specified and recorded in their proceedings.

Term of office.      SEC. 9. The board of directors, at their annual meeting, shall appoint a steward and matron, on the nomination of the superintendent, who shall hold their places for one year, unless sooner removed by the board for good cause, which cause shall be specified in their proceedings, and other officers shall be appointed for the unexpired term of those removed. The public treasurer shall be treasurer ex officio of the institution.

Removal.      SEC. 10. The board of directors shall fix the salaries and compensation of the superintendent, and the officers and employees whose services may be necessary for the management of the asylum : Provided, That the salaries shall not be diminished during the term of the incumbents.

Steward and matron.      SEC. 11. The superintendent shall exercise exclusive direction and control over all the subordinate officers and employees engaged in the service and labors of Term of office.      SEC. 12. The board of directors shall fix the salaries and compensation of the steward and matron, and the officers and employees whose services may be necessary for the management of the asylum : Provided, That the salaries shall not be diminished during the term of the incumbents.

Removal.      SEC. 13. The board of directors shall fix the salaries and compensation of the public treasurer, and the officers and employees whose services may be necessary for the management of the asylum : Provided, That the salaries shall not be diminished during the term of the incumbents.

Other officers.      SEC. 14. The board of directors shall fix the salaries and compensation of the other officers, and the employees whose services may be necessary for the management of the asylum : Provided, That the salaries shall not be diminished during the term of the incumbents.

Treasurer.      SEC. 15. The board of directors shall fix the salaries and compensation of the public treasurer, and the officers and employees whose services may be necessary for the management of the asylum : Provided, That the salaries shall not be diminished during the term of the incumbents.

Salaries, &c.      SEC. 16. The board of directors shall fix the salaries and compensation of the other officers, and the employees whose services may be necessary for the management of the asylum : Provided, That the salaries shall not be diminished during the term of the incumbents.

Proviso.      SEC. 17. The board of directors shall fix the salaries and compensation of the public treasurer, and the officers and employees whose services may be necessary for the management of the asylum : Provided, That the salaries shall not be diminished during the term of the incumbents.

Superintendent to have control of other officers.      SEC. 18. The superintendent shall exercise exclusive direction and control over all the subordinate officers and employees engaged in the service and labors of